 Rosters announced for phase 1 All Canada Classic - Jun 6,

2011 (by Eurobasket News)

In a live selection show from Flagrant Fouls headquarters, Drew Ebanks, Gilbert Mauko and Nolan Shulman of the Canadian high school basketball website revealed the rosters for the boys East and West teams for the 2011 All Canada Classic. The girls rosters were announced by Phase 1 Basketball.

The national all-star game is an annual event presented by Phase 1 Basketball. The game is set for June 21 and for the second straight year, it will be hosted in Toronto at the Air Canada Centre.

The 42 players that make up the rosters for the All Canada Classic are all Canadian high school-aged athletes that have been identified by a committee to participate in this national all-star event.

Members of the 2010 National Team Program are well represented on all rosters, with 15 total athletes participating in both games.

Leading the way are 2010 FIBA Americas U18 Championship bronze medallists Kenny Fred Cherry (Montreal), Junior Lomomba (Longueuil, Que.) and Sim Bhullar (Brampton, Ont.) for the East squad and Kevin Thomas (Ajax, Ont.) for the West.

The rosters also include bronze medallists from last summer's FIBA U17 World Championship, including Kevin Pangos (Holland Landing, Ont.), Anthony Bennett (Brampton, Ont.), and Lomomba for the East.

For the West, Olivier Hanlan (Gatineau, Que.), Negus Webster-Chan (Toronto) and Dyshawn Pierre (Whitby, Ont.) make up the rest of the 2010 National Team members.

On the girls' side, 2010 FIBA Americas U18 bronze medallist Kellie Ring (Ottawa) will suit up for the East team, while her teammate Rashida Tambilla (Ottawa) will play for the West. Last summer's National Cadette Team members Paige Crozon (Humboldt, Sask.) and Alexandria Kiss-Rusk (Baie d'Urf, Que.) will represent the East, while Vanessa Pickard (Moncton, N.B.) joins the West.

Ajax, Ontario's Dakota Whyte, who helped Canada to a fourth place finish in the first-ever Youth Olympic Games 3-on-3 competition in Singapore last summer is also featured in the girls game.

The 11th annual Rumble in the T-Dot, featuring the All Canada Classic national high school all star game presented by Jerome JYD Williams, is set for June 21 at the Air Canada Centre.
